NEWSLETTER 10 | JUNE 2019

Good afternoon,

We hope you all enjoyed the half term break!

We are delivering a large number of CPD opportunities here at the OIE. Details of some of our courses can be found below. We have too many coming up to include in this newsletter so please do visit our new website (www.OIE.outwood.com) to see our full offer! Places are often limited so please book early.

There is also just under three weeks to go until our deadline for teacher training applications closes. There is still plenty of time to apply so please do get in touch if you would like some more information or advice.

Have a great weekend,

The OIE Team

Cracking the Code

Monday 1 July 2019, at the Outwood Institute of Education, Adwick

This training shows you how to support struggling readers in secondary schools. We explain why so many children have failed to become fluent readers, and what can be done to rescue them. We will also show you how to help poor readers crack the English alphabetic code and improve their reading accuracy and fluency.

National Professional Qualifications - we are now recruiting for the 2019-20 programmes!

We are proud to announce that we are part of the NPQ Alliance, led by Ambition Institute who are licensed by the Department for Education to deliver the National Professional Qualifications. These sessions are available in both our North (Middlesbrough) and South (Doncaster) OIE locations. More details can be found below:

The National Professional Qualification for Middle Leadership (NPQML)

The main focus of this programme is to ensure that all participants increase their confidence, capability and impact as a middle leader. The course will empower participants to proactively develop a strong network to support them in their first steps in leadership. Participants will be assessed through a written assignment to ensure that they have reached the qualification requirements plus a viva interview to assess them against the more challenging Ambition bar.

EAL Co-ordinator Training: Embedding a Whole School Approach to Improving Outcomes for Learners with EAL - The Bell Foundation

This practical blended course (a mix of online and face-to-face components), aims to enhance the way EAL co-ordinators work with teachers and teaching assistants in primary and secondary settings, enabling these practitioners to plan and prioritise effective provision for EAL learners. It will introduce guidance, strategies and resources to build upon existing skills, and consider ways in which EAL co-ordinators can help colleagues to embed a whole-school approach to supporting EAL learners within diverse multilingual classrooms. Participants will develop an understanding of how best to meet the needs of all EAL learners through effective induction, progress tracking and provision that integrates a targeted language focus in all classrooms.

Computer Science Matters

Designed and delivered by outstanding Computer Science teachers, this programme aims to develop delegates' Computer Science teaching to become consistently good or better.

The programme is appropriate for NQTs, experienced teachers and non-specialists in secondary who wish to deliver computer science lessons to a high standard and develop delegates' personal strengths and enable them to learn new skills and strategies in the classroom.

Please note: This programme is not focused on the development of subject knowledge for Computer Science. If you are interested in this please consider our Computer Science TSST programme.

This programme starts in September and all sessions are 8:30am-2:30pm and will be held at the Outwood Institute of Education, Acklam.

START YOUR TEACHER TRAINING THIS SEPTEMBER!

UCAS applications
close on 26th June!

www.TeachNorth.com

The deadline for teacher training applications is fast approaching, and is now under three weeks away. However, there is no need to panic! There is still plenty of time to get your applications in before our deadline on Wednesday 26th June.

If you are considering teaching, our School Direct programme (working in partnership with Sheffield Hallam University, Leeds Beckett University and Durham University) delivers excellent teacher training across the North of England.

If you are still debating whether or not to apply, or want to chat about the application process - then please get in touch with us.

For those interested in a career in teaching, we are also hosting an Academy Open Day on 19th June, and an Information Event on 20th June, both at Outwood Academy Acklam.
